

Dan W. Poling Service Award

Sponsored by the OSU Alumni Association

Every outstanding university depends greatly upon the loyal service of its alumni and friends. Dan W. Poling, a 1928 graduate of Oregon State, joined the faculty of his alma mater in 1937 and has served as a shining example to thousands of Oregon Staters as dean of men, mentor, teacher and friend. His abiding love for Oregon State University, his strong commitment to maintaining OSU traditions and ideals, and his loyal and tireless support of the University deserve special recognition. In his honor this award is given.

Eligibility Considerations:

1. Open to any alumnus, friend, or member of the OSU family who has volunteered time and service to Oregon State University.
2. Significance of service will be considered.
3. Integrity of recipient and demonstrated service to the university must be of such high quality as to inspire others to emulate the standards Dan Poling represents.
4. In addition, please highlight how your nominees' service and accomplishments relates to one or more of the following areas:
 - Supported and/or activated change within industry, local community and/or OSU community in respect to diversity, equity, inclusion and social justice.
 - Supported governmental and community advocacy efforts for Oregon State University, OSU Alumni Association and/or OSU Foundation's education efforts, research and programs.
 - Supported students and graduates with career advice and connections to alumni, donors and friends and/or providing their career expertise to university leadership, faculty and staff in order to guide outreach and educational efforts of the OSU community.
 - Supported engagement activities designed to cultivate stewardship and donations, and/or help to strengthen the OSU community.

Those Ineligible for Nominations:

1. A candidate or an elected official for any public office.
2. Anyone currently serving as a member of the OSU Board of Trustees, OSU Alumni Board of Directors or OSU Foundation Board of Trustees; and/or an OSU Alumni Association, OSU Foundation, INTO OSU or Oregon State University employee.
